

Carol Singing in Tormarton

Friday 21st December

The village Carol Singing evening is a great Tormarton tradition, and we are keen for as many families in the village to get involved as possible, singers and non-singers alike!

The young people always have fun running from house to house helping to knock on doors with the collection tins. Last year the money we collected was divided between the 'Children's Society' and 'UNICEF support for the Syrian Refugees'. The group will be leaving Drake House (the modern house behind the village pond) at 6.30 pm, and we hope to visit most of the homes in the centre of the village by the end of our tour. The more the merrier!

If you would like the group to visit your home on their way around the village, or if you would like more details so you and your family can come and join in the fun, then please contact:
