Cotswold Edge Ministry Team Letter

New beginnings....

Here we are in a new year - can it possibly be 2026 already? I must say I'm not sorry to be saying goodbye to 2025. It's been a pretty grim year personally, nationally and internationally. Having had a diagnosis of breast cancer near the beginning of 2025, I'm delighted to report that after an operation and radiotherapy I'm told that I am cured, and I praise God for being with me through all that. Nothing is impossible with God and I am prepared to face the New Year with optimism and hope.

The New Year is always a time for new beginnings and the snowdrops are such a lovely symbol of this. I have always loved the subtle colouring of the snowdrop with the green markings on their white inner petals. I love their humility as their heads droop as though they did not dare to lift them to face the sun; also I admire their resilience in facing the cold winter frosts and even snow. They push up through the cold soil in the coldest month of the year, drawn to the surface by whatever sunshine we are blessed with and in some places carpeting large areas of gardens and woodlands with drifts of white and green. Snowdrops are said to symbolize hope, renewal, purity, new beginnings and rebirth, marking winter's end and spring's arrival, all things that help us to face the challenges of the New Year.

I hope and pray that we can face 2026 with a spirit of humility and resilience, welcoming the opportunity for new beginnings, especially as we embark on the process of finding a new vicar for our benefice. Let us pray with hope that the coming months will bring the miracle of peace to our world and that our nation will be a place where biblical principles are seen to be guiding us and those who are the decision makers in our government.

I wish you all a happy and blessed New Year.

Aurea Hart

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." Jeremiah 29:11

Plough Sunday 11 January 2025 at St Mary's Marshfield

There will be 'sign-up sheets for offers of food. We will be supporting the Farming Community Network on that day which is there for the farming community when times are tough.

Candlemas Baptism Celebration Sunday 1 February

Flag Flying Dates in January

The St George flag will be flying on Sunday 4 January for Epiphany and Sunday 25 January to mark the conversion of St Paul.

Alpha course starting in January

Is this the time for you to reflect on life's big issues or are you just curious about what Alpha is? You might like to know that another Alpha course is starting on Wednesday 21st January. Each evening starts with a meal together.

It is the place to discuss or consider the big questions you may have never got round to asking. It is for people from every background, meeting for a meal, a video and a discussion. It is a Christian course but not a Bible basher! You are encouraged to say or think exactly what you want. It is aimed both at people who don't go to church and those who do but would like to find out more about who Jesus was (and is!).

Call Mike or Celia on 01225 891001 or drop us an email on strathdees@outlook.com. This year the course will also have input from two new leaders – Marc and Hannah White.

Eco Church – actions together and at home
